ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR WEDNESDAY MAY 23, 2018

GRADS:

A reminder to all Grads to hand in your table selection for the Grad Dinner & Dance by THURDSAY – which is TOMORROW!

CAFETERIA:

Today's special in the Pacer's Bistro is:
Phyllo Wrapped Salmon with Quinoa & Vegetables
Minestrone Soup

SPORTS:

Do you like basketball? Come participate in the Basketball Tournament next week at lunch from Monday May 28th to Friday, June 1st. The games are 3 on 3. Please see Mr. Thompson to register your team. The tournament is open to everyone! See you on the court!

CLUBS:

Magic the Gathering Club is in the Library at lunch today.

Engineering Club will meet at lunch today in the woodworking shop.

There will be an important performance club meeting today at lunch in the Guitar Room.

OTHER:

The learning commons will be closed at lunch today and all afternoon because of the District Awards Presentation.

There has been an incident in the library. Visit the library to solve the mystery. What happened to Shaun? If you guess right, your name will go in the draw for a mystery prize!

Attention all students in Senior Band!
You have a very important concert tomorrow night at Hawthorn Elementary.
The set list will be finalized tomorrow in class. You will need your own music stand so please be sure to pick one up today or tomorrow.
You will need to arrive at Hawthorn for 6:40, concert will start at 7:00.

Students interested in applying to the StemStretch or WriteStretch enrichment programs should pick up an application from the office. The deadline is coming up quickly so don't delay!

Math tutorials with Mrs Andersen for grades 8-10 will take place today and continue through June. Please come to Room 1402 each Tues and Wed.between 3 pm and 4:15

Do you love science, enjoy working with others and hope to gain valuable work experience to help build your resume? Then Science World in Vancouver has an exciting 2 week volunteer work experience for you this summer. If you are interested please see Ms. Colls in counselling BEFORE the end of today!

Message in the office for
Layton Foster